

An educational program at the Oldest House helps you meet your Florida history teaching goals.

Class tours of the Oldest House Museum Complex address the following Florida Sunshine Standards for the social studies:

- SS.A.1.2.1 The student understands how individuals, ideas, decisions, and events can influence history.
- SS.A.4.3.1 The student knows the factors involved in the development of cities and industries.
- SS.A.6.2.1 The student understands reasons that immigrants came to Florida and the contributions of immigrants to the state's history
- SS.A.6.2.2 The student understands the influence of geography on the history of Florida.
- SS.A.6.2.3 The student knows the significant individuals, events, and social, political, and economic characteristics of different periods in Florida's history.
- SS.A.6.2.4 The student understands the perspectives of diverse cultural, ethnic, and economic groups with regard to past and current events in Florida's history.
- SS.A.6.2.5 The student understands how various cultures contributed to the unique social, cultural, economic, and political features of Florida.
- SS.A.6.2.7 The student understands the cultural, social, and political features of Native American tribes in Florida's history.
- SS.A.6.3.1 The student understands how immigration and settlement patterns have shaped the history of Florida.
- SS.A.6.3.3 The student knows how the environment of Florida has been modified by the values, traditions, and actions of various groups who have inhabited the state.
- SS.A.6.3.4 The student understands how the interactions of societies and cultures have influenced Florida's history.
- SS.B.2.2.2 The student understands how the physical environment supports and constrains human activities.
- SS.B.2.3.3 The student understands how cultures differ in their use of similar environments and resources.